But persecutions only stirred him to greater efforts in the cause of the King of kings, knowing, as he did, that such persecutions are evidences that the night is drawing on when no man can work. Without murmur or complaint, early and late, in winter and in summer, in heat and in cold, he walked up and out of season, as a mighty giant he fought on to the goal, never faltering or looking back. Truly, he died a hero, and died in the harness. “Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.” Truly at the close of his earthly career, as such he could say: “I have fought, and I have won; I have finished the work, and I have kept thy word, and I have not forsaken it.”

Silently listening we hear the response from the Throne of the Lord and Master:

“Well done, my good and faithful servant; enter into the joy of thy Lord.”

Is his work finished? Ah, no indeed! Of such faithful ones who die during the presence of the Lord the Great Master said, “Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them.”—Revelation 14:13.

THE PRESENCE OF THE LORD

The work that Pastor Russell did was not his work alone, but it was and is the Lord’s work. It was Jesus who said that at His coming He would gird Himself and cause His servants to sit down at meat; and that He would come “in the cloud, with power and great glory.”—Luke 12:29; 21:27; 24:27.

For forty years the Lord has been present, feeding those who have been hungering and thirsting for righteousness. For forty years Pastor Russell—that faithful servant of the Lord—has set forth clear and unmistakable evidence of the presence of the Master. He nailed to the banner of Christ’s presence on the title page of The Watchtower; and it shall never come down until the Kingdom is known in the earth. The flood of Present Truth has been rising for forty years, and it is rising higher and higher. As well might the snow melt and the Truth sink with a common broom to sweep back the waves of the mighty Atlantic as to try to suppress the flood of Truth that is rising now. In spite of all the opposition that can be brought to bear, it will continue to rise until, as the Prophet declares, “the knowledge of the glory of the Lord shall fill the whole earth as the waters fill the deep”; until such time as it will not be necessary for any man to teach his neighbor, saying, “Know ye the Lord; for all shall know Him, from the least to the greatest.”—Isa. 11:9; Jer. 8:22-33.

The thousands of men and women of the Kingdom class today who have fought by the side of Pastor Russell have not been blindly following him. They have followed the Lord; they have followed Pastor Russell only as he followed the Lord. In recognizing him as the special servant of the Lord, they have fought by his side as his brethren, looking to Jesus, the Captain of their salvation; and having thus started in the fight, they will fight on until every one of the Kingdom class has gained the victory.

A PERSONAL TRIBUTE TO THE PASTOR

I cannot pass this moment without paying a personal tribute to Pastor Russell. He was my friend, and a true friend indeed. It is written, “A true friend loves you all the time.” I loved him; I know he loved me. Long before I knew Pastor Russell, he had done much for me. While I was engaged in the law practice in the Middle West, there came into my office one day a lady, bearing some books in her arms. She was modest, gentle and kind. I thought she was poor, and that it was my privilege and duty to help her. I found that she was rich in faith in God. I bought the books and afterwards read them. Up to that time I knew nothing about the Bible; I had never heard of Pastor Russell. I did not know that he was the author of the books at the time I read them; but I know that the wonderfully sweet, harmonious explanation of the Plan of God thrilled my heart and changed the course of my life from doubt to joy.

Why should not I love him? I know that he loved me. A little incident illustrates this: Several years ago he requested me to go on a mission of importance. After talking with him I said, “Brother Russell, I feel that I cannot do it.” He answered, “Yes you can, by the Lord’s grace, for He will enable you.” I said, “I am willing to try.” “Go on,” he replied, and I will pray God to give you the wisdom.” “I went; and having succeeded far beyond my expectations I returned and gave him a report. Seated in his study, as I went over the report in detail, his face lighted up with joy; and like a loving father he rose and put his arms around me, drew me to him, and kissed me, saying, “I love you very much.” I have walked with him; I have talked with him; I have eaten with him; I have slept with him; I have been with him through trials and triumphs: I have seen him in storm and in sunshine. Amidst all of these I have marked his complete loyalty in the Lord, his magnanimous heart, and his absolute loyalty and devotion to the Lord and to His cause. Gentle, kind, fearless and affectionate, magnanimous, sincere and filled with the spirit of the Lord, he was a giant of power in the world. I count it the greatest honor that I have known to have had Pastor Russell for my master and guide, and that I have been privileged to be associated with him.

I will relate to you an incident that throws some light on his sweet relationship with the Lord. For more than a year prior to his death he suffered a great deal of physical suffering, yet never did he murmur. His great desire was to have the approval of the Master. He spoke of the Master’s name in loving terms, and his face lighted when he mentioned the Lord. A few weeks prior to this last illness, speaking to one whom he loved very dearly whom he had great confidence, he said, “I have had such a longing desire to be accepted by the Lord Jesus, to think of myself as the woman, or the bride, and to have the Master press me to His bosom. I have prayed earnestly to the Lord that I might experience this sweet relationship, and He has given me this assurance that I do enjoy this sweet relationship.” Truly the Lord loved him—“Truly for him to live was for Christ to live!”

God’s Book is written for those who are loyal to Him. His promises are to such. Among these sweet promises are the words of the Master: “Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life.” “These shall be kings and priests unto God and unto Christ and shall reign with Him.” Long ago God caused the Scribe, singer to record in His holy Book, concerning the faithful and loyal followers of Christ Jesus, these sweet words:

“The king shall joy in thy strength, O Lord; and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice. Thou hast given him the heart of a lion; thou hast put wisdom in his right hand; thou hast made him most blessed forever; thou hast made him exceeding glad with Thy counterpart.”—Psalm 89:13-14.

Truly these words fittingly apply to our beloved Brother and Pastor!

Charles Taze Russell, thou hast, by the Lord, been crowned a king; and through the everlasting ages thy name shall be known amongst the people, and thy enemies shall come and worship at thy feet.

We take the last view of this piece of clay that so faithfully bore the banner of the King. He has been a true, loyal, faithful ambassador of Christ. Thanks be to God, he has entered into his everlasting reward. The greatest desire of our lives is that we, together with him, may soon be forever with the Lord and participate in blessing all the families of the earth. God help us, as we here renew our consecration, to keep it faithfully to the end. We sorrow not for him who has gone, because we know he has entered into his everlasting joy. For him we rejoice; but we sorrow for ourselves. Yet trusting in the Lord we will continue to fight the good fight of faith.
